

Thanks to Ngọc Khanh MC 72

TRANH LỤA VIỆT NAM THẾ KỶ 20

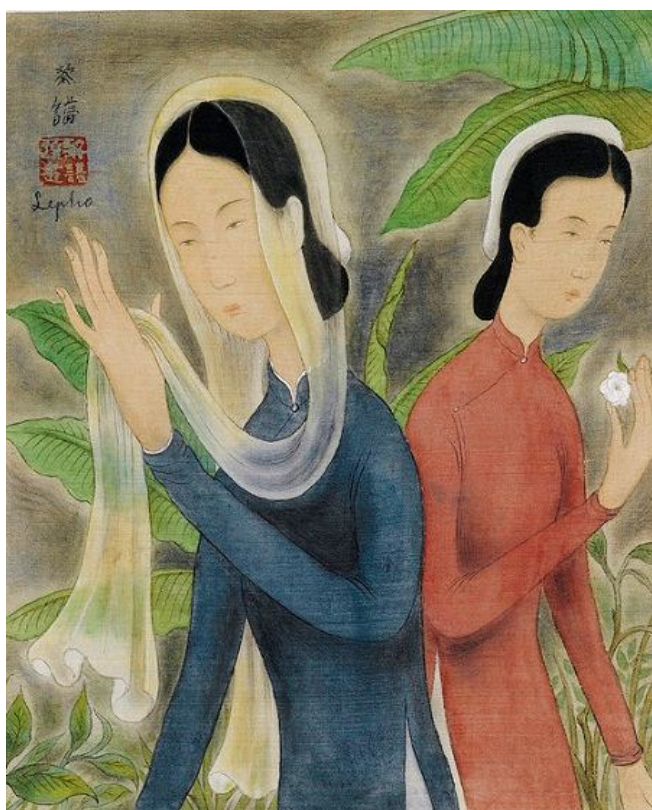

Lê Phổ (1907 – 2001) was widely regarded as one of the greatest Vietnamese painters of the 20th century

Le Rideau Mauve (The Purple Curtain) drawn by Le Pho from 1942 to 1945 fetched more than US$373,500 (VND 8 billion- the highest-ever level) at an auction in Hong Kong in April 2012.

Painting made in 1932.

Left : "Sisters" was sold at more than VND700 million at a Hong Kong auction.

Right : "Small family" earned VND2 billion

Left : "Portrait of A Young Woman with Lotus Branch" (1939) hit a price level of nearly VND3.5 billion.
 Right : "Mother and Child" fetched VND3.2 billion.

"Portrait of A Vietnamese Boy" once was priced at VND631 million.

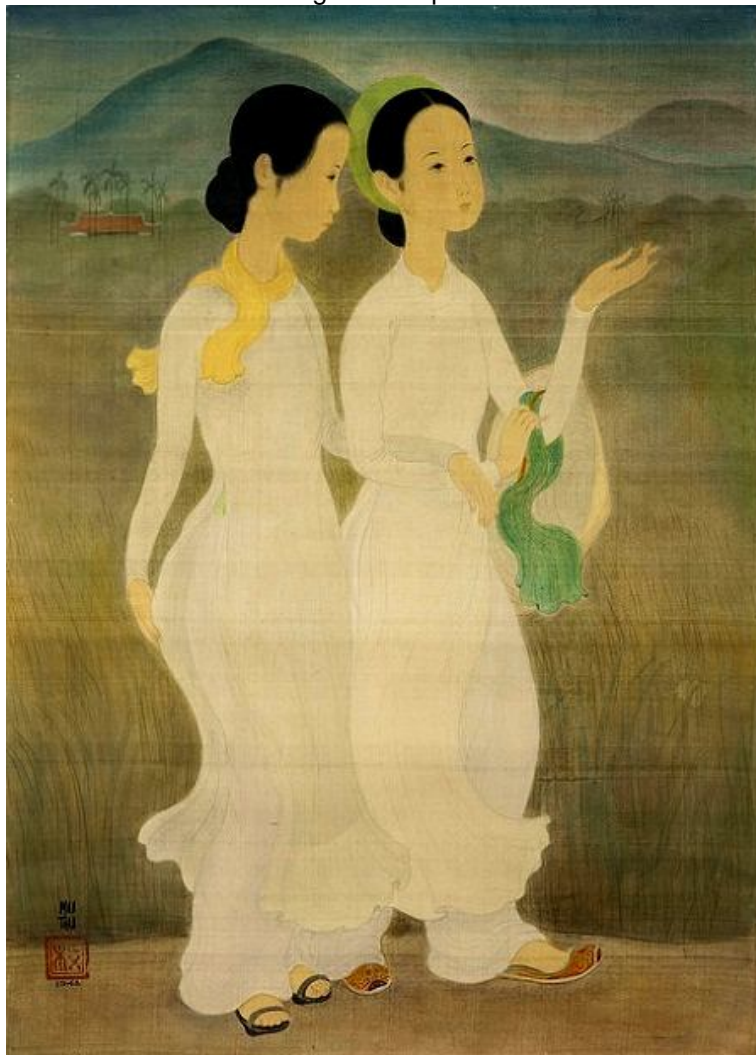

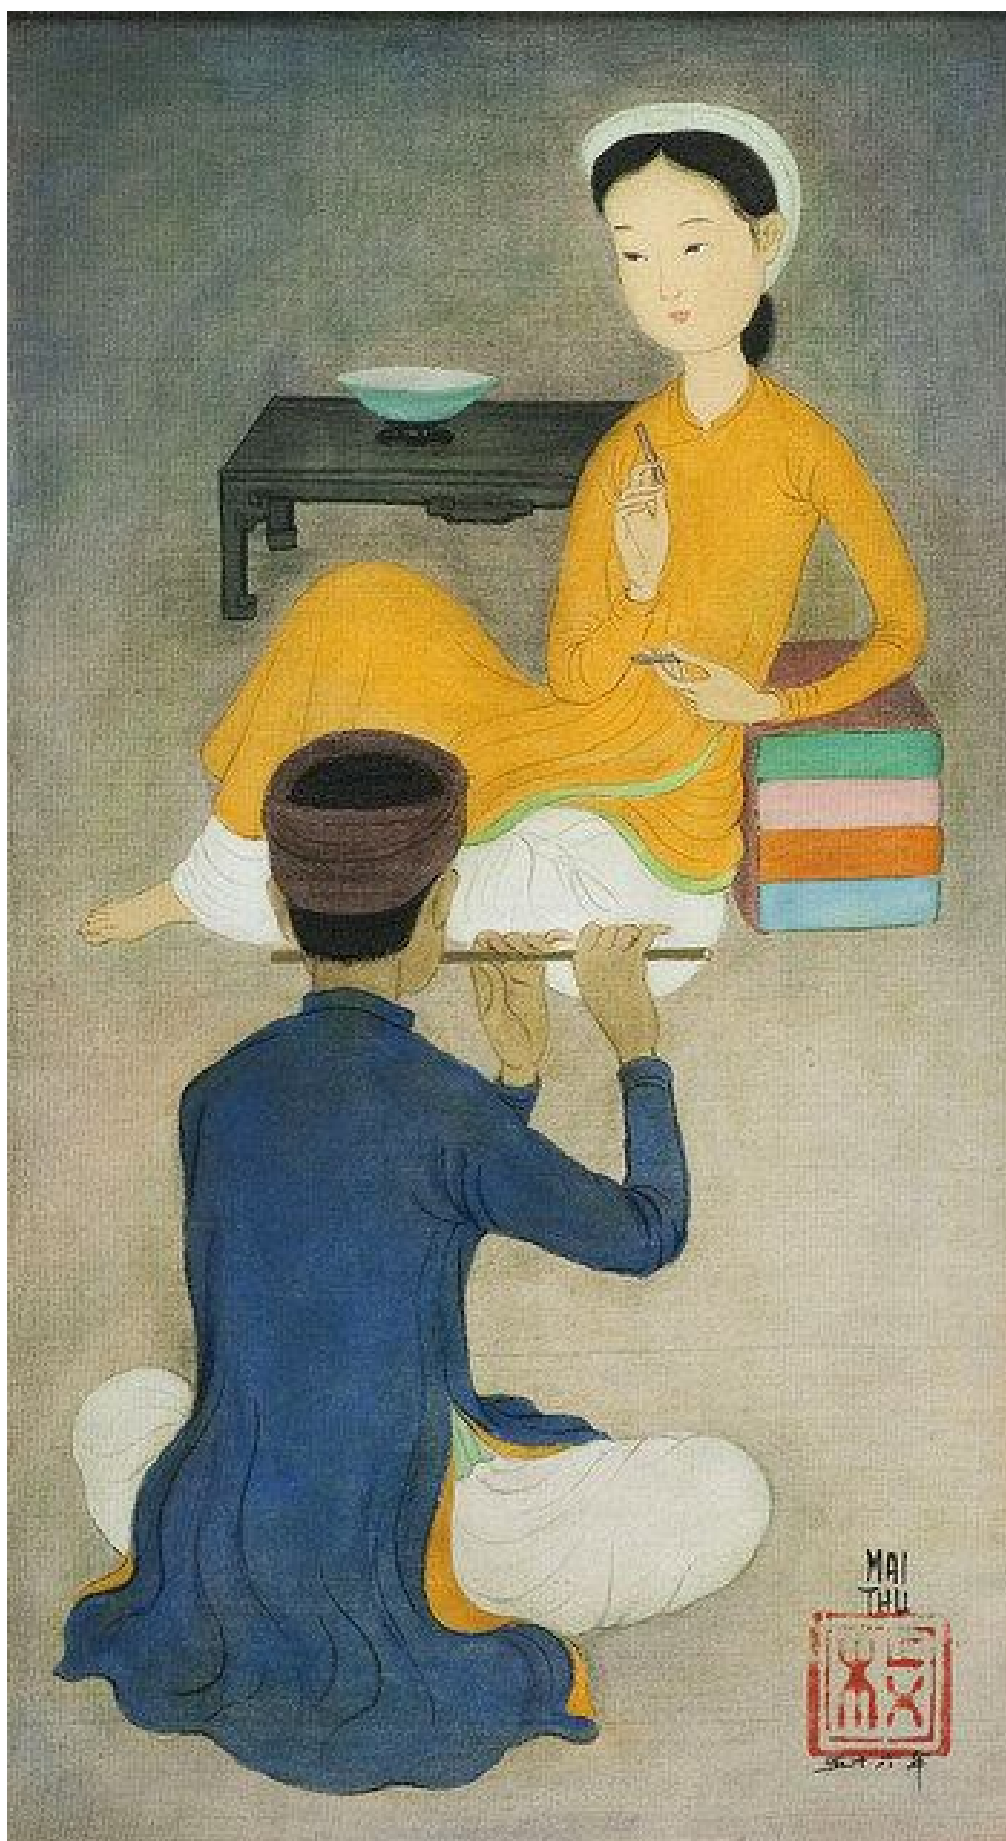

A painting from 1937-1938 worth nearly VND1.6 billion

Mai Trung Thứ (1906-1980) is another famous painter of the Vietnamese contemporary fine arts in the early 20th century.

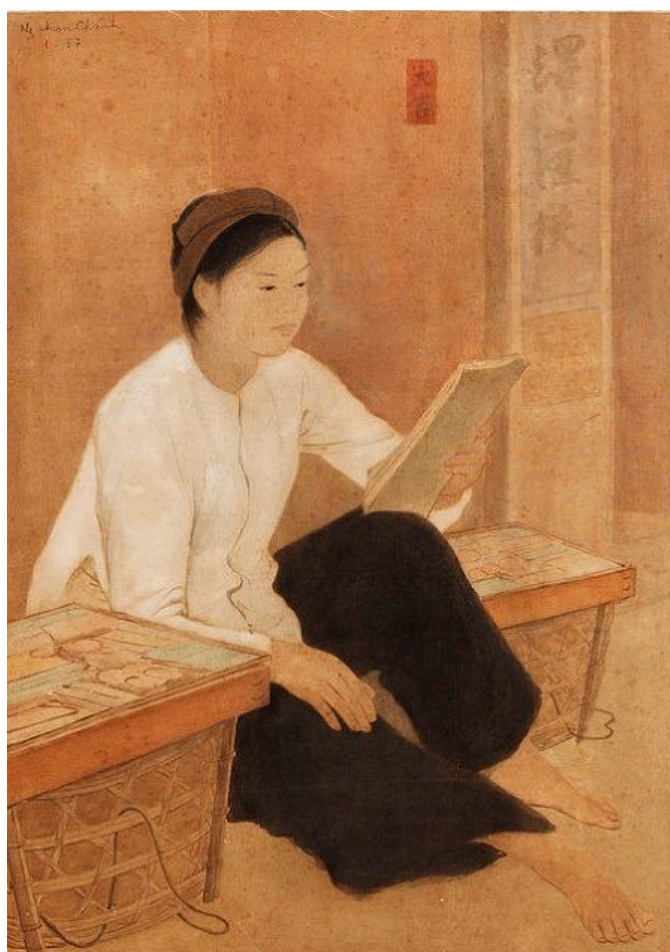

Below : "Two girls" was painted in 1942.

Paintings by Nguyễn Phan Chánh (1892-1984):

"A Rice Seller" was sold for HK$3.03 million (about VND8 billion) at an auction by Christie's International in Hong Kong in May 2013